

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Entrance Antiphon: "The Spirit of the Lord has filled the whole world and that which contains all things understands what is said, alleluia." Wis 1: 7

Communion Antiphon: "They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke of the marvels of God, alleluia." Acts 2: 4, 11

Reflection for this Sunday: As we celebrate Pentecost, we are invited to reflect deeply on the vital role of the Holy Spirit in the birth of the Church and in our lives today. This sacred feast reminds us of the miracle that occurred when the apostles, filled with the Spirit, spoke to people from many nations who heard them in their own languages—a beautiful sign of unity in diversity. The Holy Spirit broke down barriers and revealed that God’s message is for all people, regardless of language, culture, or background. This moment of divine unity calls us to inclusiveness, reminding us that we are all members of one family in Christ, called to embrace and share the Gospel across all boundaries. Pentecost also marks the birth of the Church, when the Spirit descended as tongues of fire, empowering the apostles with courage and purpose to proclaim the Good News. This same Spirit, which once rested on the apostles, now dwells in our hearts through Baptism and the Eucharist. It unites us in Christ, while honoring our individuality and enriching the Church with diverse spiritual gifts. Each of us is called to use those gifts to build up the Body of Christ and serve our communities in love. Pentecost Year C challenges us to remain open to the Holy Spirit’s constant guidance—strengthening, inspiring, and transforming us daily. As we reflect on this great feast, let us recommit ourselves to the Spirit’s call: to unite where there is division, to speak love where there is discord, and to shine Christ’s light in every corner of the world. ‘Holy Spirit, guide us and fill our hearts with your presence. Help us to see beyond our differences and unite us in Christ. May we use our gifts to serve others and spread God’s love.’ Amen.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit, Send forth the radiance of your light from heaven. Come, Father of the poor, giver of gifts, Light of hearts, come. Greatest comforter, sweet guest of the soul, Sweet refreshment, rest from toil, Coolness in heat, solace in tears, come. Light most blessed, fill the hearts of your faithful. Without your grace, there is nothing in humans but sin. Cleanse what is unclean. Water what is parched. Heal what is wounded. Make the rigid supple. Warm what is cold. Guide what has gone astray. Grant to your faithful, who trust in you, your seven sacred gifts. Grant us the grace of a holy life, a blessed death, and eternal joy. Amen.
